Palantir may evaluate Customer’s satisfaction of the Palantir Compliance Requirements at any time, including after the Customer has accessed the Service. Additionally, Customer’s continued access to the Service is conditioned upon Palantir’s determining, in its sole discretion, that Customer satisfies the Palantir Compliance Requirements. The “Palantir Compliance Requirements” is comprised of (but not limited to) Palantir determining (at its sole discretion) that performance under this Agreement with Customer would not likely (i) violate Palantir’s obligations under trade control regulations of the United States, including the U.S. Export Administration regulations, or other applicable export control laws in other jurisdictions, (ii) violate or otherwise breach Palantir’s contractual obligations with third parties, (iii) render Palantir in violation of laws prohibiting providing goods, support, or services to Specially Designated Nationals as defined by the United States Department of the Treasury, or persons subject to similar blocking or denied party prohibitions administered by a U.S. government agency, (iv) violate Palantir’s obligations under the export and sanctions laws and regulations of the United States and other applicable jurisdictions, including without limitation those of the U.S. Bureau of Industry & Security and the Office of Foreign Assets Control, or (v) otherwise violate Palantir’s policies or values. If Customer is a natural person, Customer may provision no more than twenty-five (25) Accounts, each only to other natural persons (each of which natural persons shall be considered Users) who have provided Customer with all consents, authorizations, approvals, and/or agreements necessary to permit Customer to use and/or process such Users’ data under applicable law, regulation, or agreement(s) with such Users, and who have executed Terms of Service with Palantir substantially similar to the terms of this Agreement; provided, if Customer is a natural person accessing another Palantir customer’s instance of the Service as an authorized User (or equivalent, as identified on the Order Submission Form), such Customer is not permitted to provision any Accounts. Customer shall be responsible for (i) administering Accounts; (ii) using industry standard security measures to protect Accounts (including, without limitation, using multi-factor authentication); (iii) any activity on Accounts and the monitoring of such activity on Accounts (only to the extent that such monitoring does not violate any other term of this Agreement or applicable law); and (iv) the actions and omissions of its Users in connection with the Palantir Technology and/or Accounts. Customer shall immediately de-activate any Account upon becoming aware of the compromise or unauthorized use thereof (and in such case promptly notify Palantir of such compromise or unauthorized use), or upon Palantir's reasonable request.

3.2 Data Protection. If Customer is an entity other than a natural person, such as a business, organization, or educational institution, the Parties shall comply with the Palantir Data Protection Addendum ("DPA") available at <https://palantir.pactsafe.io/#contract-bjk5slf2o>. If Customer is a natural person, the Parties shall comply with the DPA available at <https://palantir.pactsafe.io/#contract-bjq5bwem2>. Customer shall be solely responsible for the accuracy, content, and legality of Customer Data and shall ensure that any integration of Customer Data into the Service complies with applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to data localization requirements.

4. Acceptable Use.

4.1 Applicable Laws. Your and Customer's access and use of the Service and Website, will not violate applicable laws of the United States or other laws applicable in the jurisdiction in which You or Customer are located, in which any natural persons who can be identified (directly or indirectly) by reference to the Customer Data (each, a "Data Subject") is located, or in which Customer Data is stored and it is solely Your and Customer's responsibility for ensuring such compliance. Palantir may from time to time make available acceptable use policies, community guidelines, or similar policies, which shall become part of this Agreement pursuant to the updates policy set forth in Section 14.

4.2 Competitive Use. Customer will not use or access the Palantir Technology to directly or indirectly develop, create, improve, or inform a product or service similar to or competitive with any product or service offered by Palantir now or in the future.

4.3 Export Controls. The Palantir Technology may be subject to trade control regulations of the United States, such as the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, or other export control laws applicable in other jurisdictions, including the export and sanctions laws and regulations referenced in Section 15 of this Agreement. Customer may not use the Palantir Technology in violation of export control or other trade controls of the United States or any other applicable jurisdiction. This includes, without limitation, the following prohibitions:

(a) Customer may not use or access the Service if Customer is or are working on behalf of a Specially Designated National as defined by the United States Department of the Treasury or a person subject to similar blocking or denied party prohibitions administered by a U.S. government agency; and

(b) Customer may not use or access the Service to perform any activities subject to the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) maintained by the United States Department of State, including without limitation, ingesting ITAR-controlled data.

4.4 Use of PII and/or PHI. If Customer uses or anticipates to use Personally Identifiable Information ("PII"), Personal Data, Personal Information, or Protected Health Information ("PHI"), as defined under applicable law, in connection with the Service, Customer will follow the relevant guidance and best practices for protecting sensitive data set out in documentation available at <https://www.palantir.com/docs/foundry/security/overview/>. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section does not grant Customer permission to use the foregoing information in connection with the Service if an Order Submission Form does not expressly permit such use.

4.5 Use Case Limitations. Customer shall comply with the Palantir Use Case Restrictions available at <https://palantir.pactsafe.io/#ucr-985315>, which is hereby incorporated by reference into the Agreement, including in connection with any use of the Palantir Technology.

4.6 Audit Rights. Customer agrees that Palantir may audit Customer's use of the Service in order to verify Customer's compliance with this Agreement, including but not limited to compliance with Section 3.2 (Data Protection), Section 4 (Acceptable Use), Section 5.3 (Restrictions), Section 6 (Confidentiality), and Section 7 (Fees and Payment). If Palantir becomes aware of or reasonably suspects any violation of this Agreement by Customer, upon provision of prior reasonable notice, Palantir may audit Customer's compliance with this Agreement, Customer's use of the Palantir Technology, and Customer's software monitoring system(s) and records, provided such audit is conducted during Customer's regular business hours. If Palantir reasonably believes such audit reveals that Customer has violated this Agreement, Palantir may exercise its termination rights pursuant to Section 8.3, and/or suspension of services rights pursuant to Section 8.5, as applicable, and Customer will be liable for the reasonable costs of the audit in addition to any other fees, damages, penalties, or remedies to which Palantir may be entitled under this Agreement and/or applicable law. For the avoidance of doubt, Palantir's initiation of an audit is not necessarily a precondition of its exercise of termination rights pursuant to Section 8.3 or its exercise of its suspension of services rights pursuant to Section 8.5, if the conditions permitting exercise of the foregoing rights are met; Palantir's decision to initiate an audit does not preclude its ability to exercise its rights pursuant to Section 8.3 or Section 8.5, if the conditions permitting exercise of the foregoing rights are met.

5. Proprietary Rights.

5.1 Customer Ownership. As between the Parties, Customer owns all rights, title, and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to Customer Data and any modifications made thereto. Subject to the Agreement, Customer grants to Palantir a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right and license during the Term to process Customer Data solely to provide the Service and/or Professional Services or as may be required by applicable law. Customer further grants to Palantir a worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free right and license to use, distribute, disclose, and make and incorporate into the Palantir Technology any suggestions, enhancement request, recommendation, or other feedback provided by Customer or Users relating to the Palantir Technology.

5.2 Palantir Ownership. As between the Parties, Palantir owns all rights, title, and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to the Palantir Technology, and any other related documentation or materials provided by Palantir and any derivative works, modifications, or improvements of any of the foregoing (including without limitation all Intellectual Property Rights embodied in any of the foregoing). Except for the express rights granted herein, Palantir does not grant any other licenses or access, whether express or implied, or any ownership rights to any Palantir Technology, software, services, or Intellectual Property Rights.

5.3 Restrictions. Customer will not (and will not allow any third party to): (a) gain or attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Service or Website or infrastructure, or any element thereof, or circumvent or interfere with any authentication or security measures of the Service or Website; (b) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Service or Website; (c) access or attempt to gain access to another customer's data; (d) adversely impact the ability of other customers to use the Service; (e) transmit material containing software viruses or other harmful or deleterious computer code, files, scripts, agents, or programs through the Service or Website; (f) decompile, disassemble, scan, reverse engineer, or attempt to discover any source code or underlying ideas or algorithms of any Palantir Technology (except to the extent that applicable law expressly prohibits such a reverse engineering restriction, and in such case only upon prior written notice to Palantir); (g) provide, lease, lend, use for timesharing or service bureau purposes, or otherwise use or allow others to use the Service for the benefit of any third party; (h) use the Service or Website for any purpose that is not expressly permitted by this Agreement; (i) list or otherwise display or copy any code of any Palantir Technology, except for Sample Materials to the extent necessary for Customer's use of the Service; (j) copy any Palantir Technology (or component thereof) or develop any improvement, modification, or derivative work thereof, except for Sample Materials to the extent necessary for Customer's use of the Service; (k) include any portion of any Palantir Technology in any other service, equipment, or item; (l) allow the transfer, transmission (including without limitation making available on-line, electronically transmitting, or otherwise communicating, to the public), export, or re-export of any Palantir Technology (or any portion thereof) or any Palantir technical data; (m) perform penetration tests on the Service unless authorized by Palantir; (n) use, evaluate, or view the Palantir Technology for the purpose of designing, modifying, or otherwise creating any environment, software, models, algorithms, products, program, or infrastructure or any portion thereof, which performs functions similar to the functions of the Palantir Technology; (o) remove, obscure, or alter, or otherwise violate the terms of any copyright notice, trademarks, logos, and trade names and any other notices (including third party open source or similar licenses) or identifications that appear on or in any Palantir Technology and any associated media; (p) use the Website or Palantir Technology to engage in or advance any fraud or misrepresentation (including but not limited to providing fraudulent or misleading information in response to the Order Submission Form); or (q) use or access the Service for the purposes of engaging in or supporting spamming activities or communications, or marketing activities or communications in violation of the Controlling the Assault of Non-Solicited Pornography and Marketing Act (15 U.S.C. § 7701 et seq.), the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (47 U.S.C. § 227), and all other applicable laws prohibiting spam or otherwise governing transmission of marketing materials and/or communications. Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any statement to the contrary herein, Third Party Content may be made available with notices and open source or similar licenses from such communities and third parties that govern the use of those portions, and Customer hereby agrees to be bound by and fully comply with all such licenses; however, the disclaimer of warranty and limitation of liability provisions in this Agreement will apply to all such Third Party Content.

6. Confidentiality. Each Party (the "Receiving Party") shall keep strictly confidential all Confidential Information of the other Party (the "Disclosing Party"), and shall not use such Confidential Information except for the purposes of this Agreement, and shall not disclose such Confidential Information to any third party other than disclosure on a need-to-know basis to the Receiving Party's directors, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, subcontractors, or other representatives who are each subject to obligations of confidentiality at least as restrictive as those herein (“Authorized Representatives”). The Receiving Party shall use at least the same degree of care as it uses to prevent disclosure of its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care. The Receiving Party may, without violating the obligations of the Agreement, disclose Confidential Information to the extent required by a valid court or government order, or as required by applicable law, provided that the Receiving Party: (a) provides the Disclosing Party with reasonable prior written notice of such disclosure and (b) uses reasonable efforts to limit disclosure and to obtain, or to assist the Disclosing Party in obtaining, confidential treatment or a protective order preventing or limiting the disclosure, while allowing the Disclosing Party to participate in the proceeding. “Confidential Information” means (i) in the case of Palantir, Palantir Technology (including any information relating thereto); (ii) in the case of Customer, Customer Data; and (iii) any other information which by the nature of the information disclosed or the manner of its disclosure would be understood by a reasonable person to be confidential, in each case, in any form (including without limitation electronic or oral) and whether furnished before, on, or after the Effective Date; provided, however, that Confidential Information shall not include any information that (1) is or becomes part of the public domain through no act or omission of the Receiving Party or its Authorized Representatives; (2) is known to the Receiving Party at the earlier of the Effective Date or the time of disclosure by the Disclosing Party (as evidenced by written records) without an obligation to keep it confidential; (3) was rightfully disclosed to the Receiving Party prior to the Effective Date from another source without any breach of confidentiality by the third party discloser and without restriction on disclosure or use; or (4) the Receiving Party can document by written evidence that such information was independently developed without any use of or reference to Confidential Information. The Receiving Party shall be liable for any breaches of this Section by any person or entity to which the Receiving Party is permitted to disclose Confidential Information pursuant to this Section. The Receiving Party’s obligations with respect to Confidential Information shall survive termination of this Agreement for five (5) years; provided, that the Receiving Party’s obligations hereunder shall survive termination and continue in perpetuity, or as long as permitted by applicable law, with respect to any Confidential Information that is a trade secret under applicable law.

7. Fees and Payment; Taxes. The Service is deemed delivered upon the provision of access to Customer or for Customer’s benefit. If there are fixed fees set forth in the Order Submission Form, such fees will be invoiced and payable on an upfront basis, or as otherwise set forth in the Order Submission Form. Any usage-based fees set forth in the Order Submission Form, including if payable in excess of any applicable included usage specified in the Order Submission Form, will be calculated in accordance with the usage rates set forth in the Order Submission Form (as applicable) and invoiced and payable quarterly in arrears, or as otherwise set forth in the Order Submission Form. All payments shall be made via wire transfer to an account designated by Palantir in the currency set forth on the corresponding invoice, or any other payment method agreed upon by the Parties (including as specified in the Order Submission Form) and as set forth on the corresponding invoice, within thirty (30) days after the date of issuance of Palantir’s invoice. Any late payments shall be subject to a service charge equal to the lesser of 1.5% per month of the amount due or the maximum amount of interest allowed by applicable law. Unless otherwise stated in the Order Submission Form, fees are exclusive of applicable Taxes (except taxes on or measured by the net income of Palantir). Customer shall be responsible for all Taxes arising under this Agreement so that after payment of such Taxes the amount Palantir receives is not less than the fees set forth in the Order Submission Form. In the event a double taxation treaty applies, which provides a zero or reduced withholding tax rate, Customer agrees (a) not to withhold taxes in case of a zero withholding tax rate or (b) to withhold at the reduced tax rate in accordance with the double taxation treaty.

8. Term and Termination; Suspension.

8.1 Term. Unless specified otherwise in the Order Submission Form, this Agreement is effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue in effect for twelve (12) months from the Effective Date (the “Initial Term”), unless otherwise terminated as provided herein. “Term” shall mean the Initial Term together with any subsequent Renewal Terms (if applicable, as defined below); except, if specified in the Order Submission Form, “Term” shall mean the period from the Effective Date until the expiration of the term as specified in the Order Submission Form.

8.2 Automatic Renewal. This Agreement shall automatically renew for successive periods of twelve (12) months commencing on the date of expiration of the Initial Term (each a “Renewal Term”), unless either Party provides at least thirty (30) days’ written notice to the other Party of an intent not to renew prior to the expiration of the then-active Initial Term or Renewal Term (as applicable). If the Order Submission Form specifies a term or expiration different from that set forth in the foregoing sentence, then the Agreement is effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue in effect until expiration of the term as specified in the Order Submission Form.

8.3 Termination for Cause. Without limiting either Party's other rights, either Party may terminate this Agreement for cause (a) in the event of any material breach by the other Party of any provision of this Agreement and failure to remedy the breach (and provide reasonable written notice of such remedy to the non-breaching Party) within thirty (30) days following written notice of such breach from the non-breaching Party or (b) if the other Party seeks protection under any bankruptcy, receivership or similar proceeding or such proceeding is instituted against that Party and not dismissed within ninety (90) days. Except where an exclusive remedy is specified in this Agreement, the exercise by either Party of the right to terminate under this provision shall be without prejudice to any other remedies it may have under this Agreement or by law. In the event of termination of this Agreement by Customer for cause pursuant to Section 8.3(a) or by Palantir for Customer's failure to satisfy the Palantir Compliance Requirements as set forth in Section 8.5(c) (Suspension of Services), Palantir shall provide a pro-rated refund of any fees pre-paid for Services not utilized as of the effective date of termination.

8.4 Effect of Termination. Upon any termination or expiration of this Agreement, except as specifically set forth below, all Customer's rights, access, and licenses granted to Palantir Technology shall immediately cease and Customer shall promptly return or destroy all Data Connection Software, Sample Materials, and Documentation, and all other Palantir Confidential Information, and, upon written request, certify its compliance with the foregoing to Palantir in writing within ten (10) days of such request. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, if requested by Customer, Customer shall, subject to the terms of this Agreement, have access to the Service for thirty (30) days solely for the purpose of retrieving Customer Data. Palantir shall thereafter delete all Customer Data. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Palantir shall retain, subject to the other terms of this Agreement, and solely for security purposes, usage information and metadata related to the security of the Service, excluding Customer Data (except for security-related information such as IP addresses, usernames, log-in attempts, and search queries), for a period of two (2) years following the last event logged. No termination or expiration of this Agreement shall limit or affect rights or obligations that accrued prior to the effective date of termination or expiration (including without limitation payment obligations). Sections 1, 4 (excluding Section 4.5), 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14, and 15 shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

8.5 Suspension of Services. If Palantir reasonably determines that: (a) You do not have authorization to bind Customer to this Agreement on Customer's behalf (in violation of the express representation and warranty in the preamble of this Agreement); (b) Customer's use of the Service, Palantir Technology, or Website violates applicable law or otherwise violates a material term of this Agreement (including Section 3.2 (Data Protection), Section 4 (Acceptable Use), Section 5.3 (Restrictions), Section 6 (Confidentiality), and Section 7 (Fees and Payment)); (c) Customer does not satisfy the Palantir Compliance Requirements; or (d) Customer has breached any of the warranties set forth in Section 11, Palantir reserves the right to disable, suspend, or terminate Customer's access to all or any part of the Website and/or the Palantir Technology.

9. Indemnification.

9.1 Palantir Indemnification. Palantir shall defend Customer against any claim of infringement or violation of any Intellectual Property Rights asserted against Customer by a third party based upon Customer's use of Palantir Technology in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and indemnify and hold harmless Customer from and against reasonable costs, attorneys' fees, and damages, if any, finally awarded against Customer pursuant to a non-appealable order by a court of competent jurisdiction in such claim or settlement entered into by Palantir. If Customer's use of any of the Palantir Technology is, or in Palantir's opinion is likely to be, enjoined by a court of competent jurisdiction due to the type of infringement specified above, or if required by settlement approved by Palantir in writing, Palantir may, in its sole discretion: (a) substitute substantially functionally similar products or services; (b) procure for Customer the right to continue using the Palantir Technology; or (c) if Palantir reasonably determines that options (a) and (b) are commercially impracticable, terminate this Agreement and refund to Customer a pro-rated portion of the fees paid hereunder for the terminated Palantir Technology that reflects the remaining portion of the Term (or, Initial Term or Renewal Term, if and as applicable) active at the time of termination. The foregoing indemnification obligations of Palantir shall not apply: (i) if Palantir Technology is modified by or at the direction of Customer or Users, but only to the extent the alleged infringement would not have occurred but for such modification; (ii) if Palantir Technology is combined with non-Palantir products not authorized by Palantir, but only to the extent the alleged infringement would not have occurred but for such combination; (iii) to any unauthorized use of Palantir Technology, any use that is not consistent with the Documentation, any use that violates Section 4 (Acceptable Use), or use during any period of suspension (as set forth in Section 8.5); (iv) to any Customer Data; or (v) to any non-Palantir products or services.

9.2 Customer Indemnification. Customer shall defend Palantir against any third party claim asserted against Palantir arising from or relating to (a) Customer's violation of applicable law, (b) Customer Data, (c) Customer's breach of the DPA, (d) Customer's breach of Section 4 (Acceptable Use), (e) Customer's breach of Section 5.3 (Restrictions), or (f) any Customer-offered product or service (except if such claim is attributable to the Service as offered by Palantir) and indemnify and hold harmless Palantir from and against related costs, attorneys' fees, and damages, if any, issued by a competent authority or finally awarded pursuant to a non-appealable order.

9.3 Indemnification Procedure. GERMANY

1. Compliance with Applicable laws. Section 4.1 of the Terms of Service shall be replaced with the following:

“4.1 Applicable laws. You shall ensure that your and Customer’s access and use of the Service and Website, will not violate applicable laws of the United States or other laws applicable to You or Customer. In case either of the Parties is a German resident as defined by German foreign trade law, this obligation applies only with regard to export control laws and regulations enacted by the European Union or the Federal Republic of Germany and to export control laws and regulations other than those enacted by the European Union or the Federal Republic of Germany under the condition that economic sanctions have also been imposed by the Security Council of the United Nations, the Council of the European Union or the Federal Republic of Germany. Palantir may from time to time make available acceptable use policies, community guidelines, or similar policies, which shall become part of this Agreement pursuant to the updates policy set forth in Section 13.”

2. Palantir Warranty and Disclaimer. Section 10.1 of the Terms of Service shall be replaced with the following, and Section 10.2 of the Terms of Service shall renumbered as Section 10.7:

“10. Palantir Warranty.

10.1 Palantir shall ensure the functional and operational performance of the Service in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. In particular, (a) the Service will be provided in accordance with the applicable Documentation and (b) the Professional Services will be provided in a professional and workmanlike manner during the Term. Subject to the subsequent clauses, Customer’s rights to make a warranty claim in case of faults shall be as if the statutory regulations on warranty (in particular, warranty rules of tenancy law under German law) apply.

10.2 This warranty shall not apply (i) in the case of only insignificant deviation from the agreed quality or only insignificant impairment of the usability of the Service; (ii) if Customer does not report a defect immediately and Palantir was unable to remedy the defect as a result of the failure to report the defect immediately; or (iii) if Customer is aware of the defect at the time of conclusion of the contract and has not reserved his rights.

10.3 Further, this warranty shall not apply to the extent (i) a breach of the warranty is caused by any incorrect use of the Service by Customer, (ii) such breach is caused by Customer's misuse or unauthorized modification of the Service, (iii) such breach is caused by any use of the Service contrary to any conditions of use provided for the Service and specified in the applicable Documentation, (iv) such breach is caused by any violation of Section 4 (Acceptable Use), and (v) to the extent such breach is caused by any use of Customer selected hardware or software used in connection with the Service which is not suitable for the use with the Service.

10.4 Insofar as a defect has been reported by the Customer and the Customer's warranty claims are not excluded, Palantir is obliged to remedy the defect within a reasonable period of time - through measures of its own choice. Customer shall give Palantir reasonable time and opportunity to remedy the defect. Palantir's employees and agents shall be granted free access to Customer's systems for this purpose, insofar as this is necessary.

10.5 In the event of impossibility or failure to remedy the defect, culpable or unreasonable delay or serious and final refusal to remedy the defect by Palantir or in other cases in which the remedy of the defect would be unreasonable for the Customer, the Customer shall in particular be entitled to reduce the fee owed in accordance with the extent of the impairment ("Minderung"). The user is not entitled to assert a claim for reduction by independently deducting the amount of the reduction from the fee to be paid on an ongoing basis; the user's right under the law of enrichment ("bereicherungsrechtlicher Anspruch") to reclaim the overpaid part of the fee remains unaffected by this.

10.6 In case Palantir has, in the event of a breach of the warranty, not been able to remedy the defect within a reasonable period of time as set out above, Customer may give Palantir written notice of termination of this Agreement, which termination will be effective thirty (30) days after Palantir's receipt of the notice, unless Palantir is able to remedy the breach prior to the effective date of termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Customer's exercise of its right under this Section, Customer shall be entitled to receive from Palantir, a refund of a pro-rated portion of the fees paid hereunder that reflects the remaining portion of the Term (or, Initial Term or Renewal Term, if and as applicable) active at the time of termination. The Customer's right to claim damages in accordance with this Agreement remains unaffected."

3. Limitations of Liability. Section 12 of the Terms of Service shall be replaced with the following:

"12. Limitations of Liability. In all cases of contractual and non-contractual liability, Palantir's liability shall be limited to damages or replacement of futile expenses only to the following extent:

12.1 In the event of intent or gross negligence, Palantir's liability shall be in line with and not exceed the limits permitted according to the statutory provisions. The same shall apply in the event of culpably caused damages resulting from an injury to life, body or health, in the event of damages resulting from a guarantee as to quality ("Beschaffenheitsgarantie"), as well as in the event of defaults concealed fraudulently ("arglistig verschwiegende Mängel").

12.2 In an event of slight negligence, Palantir's liability shall be limited to breaches of a contractual core duty. A contractual core duty is an obligation whose fulfilment makes the implementation of an agreement possible in the first place and on the fulfilment of which the contractual partner may therefore generally rely. Liability in case of slightly negligent infringement of any such contractual core duty shall be limited to the amount of damage which was foreseeable at the time of conclusion of the agreement and typical taking into account the nature of the contract ("vorhersehbarer und vertragstypischer Schaden").

12.3 The above liability restrictions shall also apply in favour of the representatives, employees and vicarious agents of Palantir.

12.4 The above liability restrictions shall not apply to applicable mandatory statutory liability provisions which cannot be derogated from by agreement.

12.5 Any liability of Palantir for lost data shall be limited to compensatory damages in the amount necessary for restoration of the data using electronic backup media. The obligation of Customer to back-up data on a regular basis according to the state of the art shall remain unaffected thereby.

12.6 All other liability shall be excluded."
